November 09, 2017

The entire Kingsgate Family is humbled and proud to announce we have won the Cincinnati Business Courier™s 2017 Best Place to Work award for the small business veteran category. Owing Partner, Jeff Beckham, accepted the award Wednesday afternoon, at the festive ceremony held in Xavier University™s Cintas Center. He had members of the Kingsgate team there cheering along. Kingsgate™s four Owing Partners are beyond thankful for this recognition and in an email to the team they said, "this is OUR award. All the partners and each one of you, share in this great moment in our company™s rich history."

In our 31+ years in business, Kingsgate has never stopped moving and growing. Winning this award shows us our struggles and triumphs are worth the effort. The Kingsgate Family is proud to have finally won this award, and we want to thank our customers, carriers and, especially, our employees who have been integral to our success!
